SURPRISING MR. WARNER. His Business Friends Make Him

Testimonial Presentation The home of Mr. B. H. Warner, on Massachusetts avenue, was the scene of a pleasant surprise party last evening. A committee of gentlemen, represent ing the depositors of the Columbia Na tional Bank, called and presented him with a magnificent marble bust of Apollo Belvedere, the work of Burronti of Florence, Italy.

The committee included, among other prominent citizens of Washington, the following: Bishop Hurst, C. A. Drury, Rhisa G. Du Bois, L. O. Delashmutt, Hon. John A. Swope, John Joy Edson, W. A. Croffutt, Theodore A. Harding, J. S. Swormstedt, S. W. Woodward, B. K. Platn, W. B. Moses, General Small, B. H. Stinemetz, L. D. Wine, General Green B. Raum, George w. F. Swartzell, William Reinecke, H. Breiche, G. H. Br Rudolph, General Posey and

The presentation speech was made by Mr. James T. Du Bois, who paid Mr. Warner a high and deserved tribute. Speeches were also made by Hon. J. A. Swope, Bishop Hurst and Mr. W. A. Croffut. Mr. Warner replied in his usual happy vein and a collation was Columbia Athletes' House-Warming. Four thousand invitations have been issued for the house warming of the Celumbia Athletic Club, which will take place on the 25th instant at the club-house. Music will be furnished by the Marine Band and a grand gala occasion may be expected. On the 26th instant the new club-house will be thrown open for inspection.

Madison School Entertainment, The gymnasium in the Peabody school building was well filled with the pupils of Madison school and their friends last evening. The occasion was an entertainment by the scholars, and the programme reflected great credit on the teachers and their little charges. The proceeds will be applied to the library and training school fund.

To Be Opened to the Public, To-night, from 8 until 10:30 o'clock the Corcoran Art Gallery on the Interior will be in a blaze of electric light illumination. The galleries will be open to the public during the above hours, and no admission fee will be charged. It is hoped this experiment will prove to be a success.

A New Yorker Honored, The board of directors of the Standard Gas Machine Company of Washington yesterday elected Alviu B. Clark of New York vice president and general manager. General S. S. Burdett is president of the company.

HIS NAME IS MUDD.

A Maryland Member Assulted at the Capitol by a Constituent, An exciting scene at the Capitol yesterday afternoon between Congressman Mudd of Maryland and one of his constituents, John McNally, formerly of Prince George County, is described in the Baltimore Herold of this morning by its Washington correspondent. It is stated that about the middle of the afternoon persons passing through the corridors at the northwest corner of the House observed a man talking excitedly and gesticulating wildly.

Mr. Mudd was standing near the door of the Naval Committee room, and Me-Nally was denouncing him in un-measured terms. His language was much more vigorous than polite. He accused Mudd of deception, and made no bones of employing profane epithets.

Mr. Mudd struck out with his right and in the direction of McNally, but as they were so close together the in-tended blow was feeble. McNally made a demonstration, saying something about "smashing" Mudd, but several of his companions who had accom-panied him to the Capitol interposed They pulled McNally away and Mudd retired in good order.

The explanation made of the row was that McNally, who was formerly employed in the Navy-Yard here, had been promised reinstatement by Mudd; that the promise had not been fulfilled, or, as McNally concluded, Mudd was delaying the matter from and indispo-sition to fulfill his promise or inability to do so; that to day McNally, with several friends, visited the Capitol and insisted that Mudd should accompany him immediately to the proper nava authorities and urge reinstatement; that Mudd could not leave the House Just then, whereat McNally grew furious and proceeded to savagely denounce the Congressman.

There was no blood drawn, nor was any harm done save to alarm several old ladies and timid Congressmen, who at once feared another shooting scrape in the Capitol.

The Cable Cars Start To-morrow The pretty pumpkin-colored gripcars and coaches on the new Seventhstreet cable road will commence running to-morrow. Punctually at noon the first cars, a grip, with coach attached, will start from the foot of Seventh street, laden with officials of the company and invited guests. Soon thereafter the other cars will follow until the line is in full operation.

Careless With His Pipe. By being careless with his pipe colored employe started a fire in John Lynn's livery stable, No. 909 Grant avenue, this morning. The stable was damaged to the extent of $300, fully covered by insurance. The house adjoining, No. 911, was also damaged to the extent of $175, but not insured.

Veteran Light Infantrymen. The veterans of old Company A. Washington Light Infantry, met last night at Grand Army Hall and unanimously elected Colonel R. I. Fleming president of the Veteran Association. Several new members were admitted, and arrangements made for a banquet on the 12th prox.

A Cab Driver's Fall.

Last night about 10 o'clock Isaiah Ridgeway fell from the seat of his cab near the corner of Twenty-first and G streets and sustained serious injuries. Ridgeway was taken to his home, 2306 H sweet northwest.

A Columna Thier,

A colored man named Thomas Garner stole $3 from the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Wall, No. 407 Seventh street this morning. He was locked up in the Sixth Precinct.

Charley C. Sold, Charley C., the fastest trotting horse ever owned in this city, was sold yes

Traveling a Modern Passion, Frances Power Cobbs in the Ancil Forum. Now the gadfly which pursued poor lo seems to have stung us all, and we flit about the globe resilessly, till it has nearly come to pass that everybody who has a house has let it to somebody else, and the last place to expect to find a man is at home. A general game of puss-in-the-corner amuses the best society of Europe and America all the summer and much of the winter. The humblest village school child expects two or three annual featurings. annual excursions, every servant and shop hand stipulates for a holidays long enough to pay distant visits; in short, our lives are becoming much like those of festive gnats at play of a warm evening. Sometimes we pause to suck a flower or to bite some body, but we soon return to the perpetual lecomotion which seems to possess unfalling charm.
